How well did the workshop meet your expectations?	Expectations met. Very well. Met expectations quite well. Very well. A fairly comprehensive overview of theory, and practice was delievered that was then ‘tailored’ to our own work envionment.
Tell us what you liked most about the workshop.	The logic flowed well › from context through to specific example. Both a broad and in-depth coverage in the area of evaluation. The experience and expertise of the presenters. The tools/concepts for thinking about and analysing evaluation. The knowledge of the facilitators. It was fantastic to be able to harness it though asking challenging questions.

What understandings, tools and skills have you gained and what difference will these make in your practice following the workshop?	Program logic will be very useful. Framework for reporting will be a great guide and checklist for strategy reevaluation activities. Understanding of the evaluation process and how it integrates with the overall policy vision. <ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>– Examples of program logic models.</li> <li>– Evaluation Plan.</li> <li>– Will help to think more clearly about policy/program work with that I'm involved.</li> </ul> I feel I am much more capable of influencing evaluation to occur in my organisation as well as shaping it to be 'fit for purpose' :)
How well did the presenters meet your expectations?	Very knowledgeable - able to answer specific questions/apply to personal context. Very well. Friendly, keen, knowledgeable presenters. Presenter was precise and clear. Very well.
